USAC's Special Edition E-Rate News Brief of December 21st, announced the FY 2023 window, provided tips for first-time filers, Category 2 budget planning, competitive bidding, and browser updates. Once the Administrative Window is closed, entity profiles will be locked for the duration of the application window unless changed during PIA review.

Gigi Sohn Renominated for FCC Commissioner:

Gigi Sohn, who had initially been nominated as the fifth FCC Commissioner, but whose confirmation languished in an evenly divided Senate, has been renominated for that position by President Biden. With a slight Democratic majority now in the Senate, prospects for confirmation have improved. The addition of a fifth FCC Commissioner should break an apparent tie on several FCC issues — including, from an E-rate perspective, the approval of a Declaratory Ruling on the eligibility of WiFi on school buses as early as FY 2024.

Statements in support of Ms. Sohn’s confirmation were issued last week by FCC Chairwoman Rosenworcel and Commissioner Starks.
